Foreword

Dear Readers

I am pleased to present this Annual Report for the Academic Year (July 2019- June 2020). After the launch of New Strategic Plan (2018-21) of the Federal Judicial Academy some two years ago, it is time to review the progress made in implementing our New Strategic Plan (NSP) and this Report presents the work and activities undertaken under the new Strategic Plan in line with renewed vision and mission of the Academy.

As Director General of the Academy, I write this foreword with much satisfaction and complete gratitude to AlMighty Allah as we managed to achieve the desired targets during the given period. Despite challenges, with the Grace of The AlMighty, we were able to honour our commitments and beyond.

Year 2020 was not easy as Covid-19 had affected every walk of life. Businesses, offices, schools, colleges and all other ways of practical life had come to a halt. We tried to find innovative ways to remain productive and continued the activities in new digital ways to support Judges and other stakeholders around the country, while social distancing remained in place. The academy arranged a series of Webinars for online education. Federal Judicial Academy YouTube Channel was an other way to reach out the distance audience.

I'd like to thank the very many people and both, national and international organizations with whom we have been working, and who have helped us to take this Institution to the next level envisaged under the FJA Act.

While staying true to our mandate to promote quality legal and judicial education to all stakeholders of the justice system, we will keep this purpose in the forefront of our minds as we step up our response to challenges ahead. I hope you enjoy reading this report.

Hayat Ali Shah
Director General

CHAPTER I

FEDERAL JUDICIAL ACADEMY: THE PIONEER INSTITUTION OF JUDICIAL EDUCATION IN PAKISTAN

Introduction

Access to justice, right to fair trial and effectual implementation of court decisions, unequivocally fall within the category of fundamental rights of every human being. A well-functioning, independent and impartial judicial system strengthens democratic values and is essential for securing socio-economic stability as it underpins rule of law, and inspires peace and security that ultimately feed into good governance and sustainable development of any country.

Efficacy in justice system calls for efficient service delivery based on competence, integrity, and independence, with a comprehensive approach. This means that the judicial sector, including judiciary, police, prosecution, and the bar, must have well-trained and professionally sound functionaries at all levels. For the purpose, continued judicial education and respective professional development programs of these inter-connected sectors, therefore, becomes imperative.

Genesis of Judicial Education in Pakistan

The Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan sets out the “Right to Fair Trial”¹ as a basic Fundamental Right of the citizenry of this country, mandates the State to “ensure inexpensive and expeditious justice,”² and to hold “everyone equal before the law without discrimination.”³ The Preamble and Article 2A of the Constitution accentuates the establishment of an order wherein the principles of democracy, freedom, equality, tolerance and social justice, as enunciated by Islam, are to be fully observed and the independence of judiciary is completely secured. Put together, the main objective is to ensure that a strong system of good governance is in place whereby the fundamental rights of the people are protected, and rule of law as well as social justice prevail.

Judicial arm of the state being mandated with crucial task of ensuring access to inexpensive and speedy justice also calls for adequate financial and human resources with provision of technical trainings and capacity building measures for representatives of different tiers of judiciary on regular basis.

The Establishment

To perform efficiently, the courts need judges with highest ethical standards with extensive legal knowledge, good leadership, decision making, and administrative skills. In addition, the significance of competent ethically groomed staff cannot be undermined. Need to set up a training institute for members of the district judiciary in particular, had been felt and reflected in various law reform commission reports in the past. It had been emphasised that in order to achieve required technical knowledge and skills for improving the performance of the judiciary, it was critical to set up special judicial training institution where professional training courses for the judges and court staff could be organised in their respective relevant areas.

The Federal Judicial Academy (FJA) in Islamabad, was consequently set up in 1988, under a Resolution of the Government to provide a conventional institution for conducting judicial education and trainings for the relevant judicial sector officers and staff.

In 1997, FJA was given a legal cover under the Act of Parliament.⁴ The Act regulated its functions and structure in line with its aims and objectives. It also gave the Academy an independent status.

In compliance with the Act, FJA was established in 1998, as an independent autonomous judicial education institution.⁵ Based in Islamabad, the FJA is an independent body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property both moveable and immovable.

Honourable Chief Justice of Pakistan

Honourable Chief Justice of Pakistan, Mr. Justice Gulzar Ahmad

The honourable Chief Justice emphasised on the need to ensure their highest integrity, independence, impartiality, due diligence and to follow the code of conduct and always keep in mind sense of responsibility and accountability towards The Almighty Allah and to the people. National Symposium on “Criminal Justice Coordination Framework- A Tool for Human Rights Protection”

Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial, Hon'ble Judge Supreme Court of Pakistan

1. CONCEPTUAL BACKGROUND:

Failure of Justice system breeds bad governance and enhances vulnerability. It has direct bearing on human capabilities and freedoms, thus thwarting the very process of development. In order to be more responsive, justice system needs to be human rights sensitive and well-aligned to international standards. Despite the fact that Pakistan has acceded to several human rights treaties in the past two decades but still its human rights profile seems deficient on many scores. As per Pakistan's Third Universal Periodic Review Report, 2013-17 presented in 28th Session of the Universal Periodic Review Working Group of the UN, 289 recommendations were made by member States regarding human rights situation in Pakistan. Out of these, 168 recommendations have been accepted by Pakistan for implementation including strengthening of functioning of judiciary, right to fair trial and equitable access to justice for all.

These recommendations are likely to reduce marginalization, provided some sort of intrinsic tools and safety nets are made to work in the criminal justice system through defined policies and practices. One such area is the Criminal Justice Coordination Framework, available in the system in the shape of Criminal Justice Coordination Committee (CJCC). The Police Order 2002 introduced CJCC in Pakistan for the first time. It was designed to serve, amongst other things, as the district-level policy making organ of the criminal justice sector, placing reliance on specialized input of key stakeholders. It represented a shift towards providing judicial oversight over the working of the police force. Realizing that the institutions of the Judiciary, Police and Prosecution are though function independently, yet are intrinsically interconnected, this concept was aimed at increasing efficiency, transparency and public trust in the overall system. It was also to offer a platform for engagement, discussion and policy formation at local level, where prioritization is made taking into consideration the ground realities.

The main functions of the CJCC were postulated to be; firstly, to keep the operation of the criminal justice system under constant review and to work towards the improvement of the system as a whole; secondly, to promote understanding, cooperation and coordination in the administration of the criminal justice system; and thirdly, to formulate coordinated priorities and plans to give effect to locally agreed policies. Over a period of time, it was felt that the criminal justice coordination framework is proving itself as a safety net and an effective tool against violations of human rights. Be that overcrowding, reformation or health security of the inmates of prisons, abuse of authority by Police adversely affecting fair investigation or any issue detrimental to fair trial, CJCC is supposed to take the lead towards redressal.

Mr. Hayat Ali Shah, DG while presenting research publication of FJA to Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial, Hon'ble Judge Supreme Court of Pakistan

Federal Judicial Academy has a prime objective of providing continuing judicial education to officers of district judiciary in order to improve their professional competence and the quality of justice administered in the courts. In its Strategic Plan 2018-2021, FJA envisioned itself as an institution of excellence aimed at continued professional development of an independent and accountable judiciary for expeditious and inexpensive justice that upholds the values in line with the aspirations of the people of Pakistan. The FJA has been striving for capacity development of key players of justice sector since its inception with the core objective of improving service delivery and providing a platform for a continuous dialogue on connection of Rule of Law with social and economic development.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) Islamabad has been closely collaborating with FJA in undertaking indigenous legal research in line with its Strategic Plan (2018-2021). It also has a working relationship with police departments of various Provinces of Pakistan, which is aimed at disseminating international Humanitarian Law (IHL) and international standards of policing. The relationship is maintained through regular interactions, dissemination sessions and training activities. These activities aim at sensitizing the key players with the International Human Rights Law (IHRL) and IHL through a robust debate on contemporary challenges being faced by the criminal justice system.

Conscious of this conceptual background and the rationale behind collaboration with FJA and the Police, this National Symposium was organized for exploring as to how the Criminal Justice Coordination Framework could be used as a tool and safety net for protection of human rights of those, who are subject of criminal justice system one way or the other.

“Continuing Legal Education” Professional Development Package for Members of the Bar

Federal Judicial Academy, under its statutory mandate of working for improvement in justice system, chalked out a comprehensive professional development strategy for capacity enhancement of members of the bar. It is in acknowledgment of its role in administration of justice, which is both important and crucial. FJA is cognizant of the fact that law is a profession that involves continuous change, development and evolution. Being common law jurisdiction, the pace of this change is more perceivable in Pakistan, It, therefore, needs a permanent system of professional development through Continuing Legal Education (CLE).

The concept of CLE is though hardly known to the Pakistani legal system, but it is in place globally. It refers to the training received by lawyers after they have been admitted to practice in their respective jurisdictions. Continuing legal education takes a range of forms and may include seminars, lectures, study circles and book reviews. It is most common in United States of America and it is mandatory for most lawyers to undergo a certain amount of continuing legal education to remain in good standing with their respective State Bar. In the United Kingdom, the four Inns of Court are actively involved and lay substantial emphasis on continuous training of the Barristers. Similar requirements are in place for practicing Solicitors as well.

Continuing legal education is necessary for a host of reasons. It not only provides an opportunity to practicing lawyers to come to grips with change in laws but at the same time it is used across the world to impart to the lawyers ethical concerns surrounding their profession. Additionally, it provides lawyers with an opportunity to critically examine, discuss, and deliberate over various legal propositions. This could potentially strengthen legal scholarship, lack of which in itself is a serious concern.

His lordship Hon’ble the Chief Justice of Pakistan/Chairman, Law and Justice Commission of Pakistan, while chairing meeting of the ‘Steering Committee on Police Reform’, on 11.02.2019, observed that professional standard of police investigation needs to be improved. It was directed that joint trainings of investigation officers and prosecutors be carried out for the purpose. On the request of ICT Police, the Training Need Assessment (TNA) was undertaken and a Focused Group Discussion (FGD) was conducted on 20.03.2019 for the purpose and on the input of FJA faculty, Investigation Officers, Prosecutors and Judges from Islamabad District Judiciary the requisite course was designed.

The first ever course of its kind was organized from 24.06.2019 to 29.06.2019 wherein Ten (10) investigation officers from ICT police and fourteen (14) prosecutors from all over Pakistan participated. The level of participation and the feedback received from participants was extremely encouraging and pragmatic.

Research Cycle-II

The Academy initiated the research culture promoting training course among young judicial officers.

Eight months training on “Research Methodology” for Civil Judges from across Pakistan including Republic of Maldives (Research Cycle-II) in collaboration with International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) was organized.

Initially the research cycle II was launched at Federal Judicial Academy on February 3, 2020 for five months but due to the Pandemic Covid-19 the research activities were affected, as a consequence there of it was extended for further three months.

An eight-months long training course “Research Cycle-II” was launched at the Academy on February 3, 2020.

Nine Judicial Officers from Pakistan and three Judges from Maldives, with a passion for research, nominated by the High Courts, underwent this eight-month long programme.

The research was aimed at finding out whether the prevailing Criminal Justice System was efficacious enough to meet the ends of justice and combat the rising tendency of the violence particularly in the urban societies.

The programme was launched pursuant to the policy guidelines of Hon’ble Chief Justice of Pakistan requiring research skills for judicial officers at all levels. It is to inculcate culture of research in the District Judiciary and is expected to highlight need for indigenous study in areas of supreme importance. Expeditious Justice
Initiative: A Tactical Approach

National Conference on “Expeditious Justice Initiative-The Way Forward” at Supreme Court Auditorium

Background

Delay in decision of cases is a worldwide phenomenon and Pakistan is no exception to it. Courts have been reeling under the pressure of huge workload, and litigant public getting disappointed with the judicial system. Immediately upon taking oath as the Chief Justice of Pakistan, Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, decided to address the issue on priority basis. He conceived the idea of Expeditious Justice Initiative (EJI), through the Model Courts that were based on dealing with the issue in a creative manner within the existing resources. To translate his idea of EJI into reality, the Hon’ble CJP assigned the task of planning, execution and implementation to Director General, Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah and Mr. Sohail Nasir, District & Sessions Judge.

A comprehensive document was prepared specifying the mechanism of working of Model Criminal Trial Courts for dealing with murder and narcotics cases. For the first time all stakeholders of justice sector like Police, Prosecution, Prison and Health Departments were taken on board and brought in close coordination.

Action Document was prepared at Federal Judicial Academy, which laid down the duties and responsibilities of all the stakeholders of justice sector. The concepts of “Continuous Trial” and “Scheduling Certificate” were introduced. A murder trial was proposed to continue on day to day basis till its decision, while fixing its dates of hearing with consent of the counsel through scheduling certificate.

Action Document was placed before the National Judicial Policy Making Committee chaired by the Honourable Chief Justice of Pakistan, which was unanimously approved.

Objectives:

- To improve service delivery of criminal justice system by introducing time-bound criminal trial regime;
- To reduce the shelf life of criminal cases through efficient trial management;
- To fix time-frame for conducting criminal trials by introducing trial scheduling;
- To make trial management a coordinated effort by key players.²
- To improve working of the Magistrates’ courts by bifurcating Pre-trial and Trial work.
- To improve service delivery of civil justice system by introducing case management and scheduling conference;
- To reduce the shelf life of appeals against orders, civil revision petitions, appeals in rent and family cases through efficient case management;
- To establish an early and continuing control of the court over the case, so that it is not protracted because of lack of management;

Monitoring & Evaluation Cell (M&EC)

Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E) Cell was established at Federal Judicial Academy. The Cell was assigned the task of monitoring the performance of Model Courts as well as to act as a trouble shooter for any issue and challenge that may arise during court work. Besides, it functions as a coordination bridge between the Model Courts, Police, Prison, Prosecution Health and Chemical Examiners Departments. The Cell collects, compiles and presents the daily performance report of the Model Courts to the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Pakistan and the Hon'ble two Members' Committee of the Supreme Court of Pakistan.

As the daily performance of Model Courts is to be regularly collected, compiled and presented before the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Pakistan, a special Data Collection Software has been developed through which every model court shares its daily performance. The court simply punches the relevant information in the Software and posts it. The M&EC retrieves the information received from across the country, compiles it, and presents it in a consolidated form before the Hon'ble Competent Authorities.

It was indeed a challenging task to bring together all stakeholders under one roof for orientation and to sensitise them with the need and practical benefits of EJI, especially vis-à-vis the rights and expectations of litigant public from the judicial system of the country. It was brought home to all that trial management was the joint responsibility of the entire judicial sector and relevant key departments, and it could not be left as a sole obligation of the judiciary. All departments were, therefore, required to play their respective roles proactively in a systematic manner in order to facilitate conclusion of the trials, of cases expeditiously and justly.

Establishment of the Model Courts

Initially, 116 Model Criminal Trial Courts (MCTCs) dealing with murder & narcotics cases were established at district headquarters in the country. They were assigned limited docket of cases with an upper limit of 30 cases at a time, and directed to observe the SOPs provided in the Action document. MCTCs delivered phenomenal results and decided the chronic cases in no time. Murder cases hanging fire for the last many years were decided within few days. With it came the ray of hope for the litigant public and trust in the judges. Sphere of the MCTCs was expanded by establishing further 64 courts in different subdivisions as recommended by the Hon'ble High Courts.

Success of the MCTCs paved the way for establishing 125 Model Civil Appellate Courts (MCACs), across the country, on 15/07/2019, on the strength of Action Document-II, also approved by NJPMC.¹ These courts were presided over by District Judges and Additional District Judges, and were assigned the task of deciding Civil Appeals against interim Orders, Civil Revisions, Rent and Family Appeals.

Later on, Action Document-III was approved by the NJPMC and at Magistrate level 110 Model Trial Magistrate Courts (MTMCs) were established at district headquarters as well as at tehsil headquarters. These courts were directed to decide oldest cases, particularly the hurt cases, in their respective jurisdictions. Docket of each MTMC was capped with an upper limit of 100 cases at a time. As soon as certain number of cases were decided by MTMC the Sessions Judges would transfer equal number of cases from other courts.

Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Pakistan and the senior leadership felt that there was an element of uncertainty in the business community, and daily dealings of the people lacked conviction of fulfillment of obligations and duties. As a consequence thereof, 48 Magistrates courts were further established in the country, to decide exclusive cases of issuing bogus cheques registered under section 489-F PPC. Prompt and speedy decisions of these cases left huge impact on the social fabric of the society. Not only billions of rupees, obtained through cheating and fraud, were returned to the rightful claimants but also the trust and confidence of the business community was restored.

The Model Courts are working zealously and providing relief to the litigant public. Some people criticise them for working too fast and not providing ample opportunity to the lawyers to prepare the case; although there is a huge population of the litigant public who see it as a silver lining in dark clouds. The model courts have brought hope to the hopeless and relief to the victims and obviously punished the perpetrators of crime and misery.

National Conference on “Expeditious Justice Initiative” The way forward

Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, Hon'ble Chief Justice of Pakistan, addressing the participants of the National Conference

1. CONCEPTUAL BACKGROUND:

In line with constitutional mandate, the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Pakistan envisioned provision of expeditious and inexpensive justice for the citizens of Pakistan. The idea was to improve service delivery with optimum utilization of the available resources within the existing legal framework. In order to materialize this vision, 'expeditious justice initiative' was articulated. It was approved by the National Judicial Policy Making Committee on 11.03.2019 as a policy guideline.

The initiative introduced Time-Bound Criminal Trial Regime and established Model Criminal Trial Courts in the first phase. In the second phase, Model Civil Appellate Courts were established with particular focus on Civil Miscellaneous Appeals, Revision petitions, Family Appeals and Rent Appeals. In the third phase, the Initiative enhanced its outreach through establishment of Model Trial Magistrate Courts. All the model courts worked under Standard Operating Procedures with a comprehensive monitoring and evaluation mechanism.

In April this year, a national conference was organized with a view to sensitizing all the relevant stakeholders with the initiative so as to secure their ownership and commitment. The coordination framework so developed did miracles and the model courts are performing unbelievably since then. It may be mentioned that the initiative focused on some particular categories of cases only, which were selected because of their seriousness and the vulnerability of parties involved in such cases. Having worked for about nine months, the effects of the initiative started trickling down to each end user of the system, which brought a sigh of relief to the litigant public.

With the above conceptual background, this National Conference was organized with sole objective of gathering key players of the justice system representing the coordination framework for a dialogue on the outcome and a workable way forward for the Initiative. The delegates included Implementation Coordination Committee, Provincial Lead Teams (PLT) comprising Registrars of the High Courts, District and Sessions Judges and Judges of Model Courts beside representation from key players of coordination framework. The conference highlighted the success stories and acknowledgments for the best performing Judges and Magistrates.

2. THE THEME:

The main theme of the National Conference was “Expeditious Justice Initiative-the Way Forward”. It however, highlighted the achievements made and challenges and constraints faced by the Judges of various model courts. It also proved as official recognition for the best performing Judges and Magistrates.

3. OBJECTIVES:

The conference attempted at gathering key players of justice system including Hon’ble Chief Justices of High Courts/Members of NJPMC, Implementation Coordination Committee (ICC), Provincial Lead Teams (PLT) comprising Registrars of the High Courts, District and Sessions Judges and Judges of Model Courts from all over Pakistan for a dialogue leading to recommendations for proposing a workable way forward. The discourse concentrated on the following:

- a. To assess outcomes of the Initiative in terms of improved delivery of service by justice sector attained through coordination framework;
- b. To evaluate the challenges and constraints in working of the model courts;
- c. To assess the effectiveness of Standard Operating Procedures formulated under the Initiative;
