Mr. Justice Mushir Alam and Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial visited FJA Phase-II, Building

Honourable Judges, Supreme Court of Pakistan, Mr. Justice Mushir Alam and Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial, paid an inspection visit to the newly-constructed FJA Phase-II on March 5, 2019.

Both the Honourable judges who are also Judges in charge of the Academy, toured the building to check the quality and durability of all phases of construction, including electrical, mechanical, plumbing, structural installations so as to make it functional after a formal handing over ceremony.

On the occasion, Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah briefed them about the utilization plan of the building and its various blocks, wings, lecture halls, seminar halls, auditorium, library, archive and gymnasium constructed on various floors of the building.

He also proposed certain modifications and alterations to be brought at certain points and junctures in the newly-erected giant building for its effective utilization for promotion of quality teaching and training in the Academy.

While inspecting the newly -erected building, both the Judges of the Apex court stressed upon educational significance of the building, noting that we need to take over the building as soon as possible.

The officers and staff members of the Academy, PAK. PWD and NESPAK, among others, were present on the occasion.

Adieu to Old Building

Saying goodbye to your old office building and starting new can be bittersweet and easily turn into an unexpected emotional roller coaster.

The management of the Federal Judicial Academy bade adieu to old building which was built in year 1988 and are about to start working in the adjacent newly-constructed giant building called “FJA-Phase II Building”.

All faculty, officers and staff members are determined to “bring their own spirit” to the new office building.

Chief Justice, IHC, laments nepotism as one of the greatest evils in our society

The Certificate Awarding Ceremony of six-day training course on “Leadership and Management” for District and Sessions Judges was held at the Federal Judicial Academy (FJA) on January 12, 2019.

Chief Justice, Islamabad High Court, Hon’ble Mr. Justice Athar Minallah, distributed certificates as Chief Guest among twenty five heads of district judiciary from all over Pakistan and Azad Jammu and Kashmir. In his address, Hon’ble Chief Justice, IHC said that leadership and management training is vital for promoting and ensuring Rule of Law in the country.

“Being an effective leader is essential in order to make an impact within your organisation. A single good leader can create an endless chain of social change. First of all, a good leader always puts his or her house in order. District and Sessions Judges are important leaders of judicial system because district judiciary is an important tier of the administration of justice system “he maintained.

Honourable Chief Justice, IHC, awarding certificates to District and Sessions Judges

Honourable Chief Justice, IHC, in his address also enlightened the participants about some of the important leadership qualities of good leaders which include: Honesty, integrity, inspiring others, good communication, “decision-making capabilities, amongst others. For all type of leaders whether they belong to sports, politics, judiciary or any other discipline, attributes of good leadership are the same. When a leader is honest, then, his honesty has the trickledown effect. District and Sessions Judges as leaders must put in practice their leadership attributes to reform the district judiciary and ameliorate the plight of the litigant public who are the key stakeholders in the administration of justice system.”

Lamenting the growing nepotism in our society, he stated that, “The menace of nepotism has become a way of life in our society. As leaders, District and Sessions Judges must play the desired role to combat nepotism which has permeated into every fabric of society.”

Speaking on the occasion, Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah stated that, “Leadership competencies contribute to superior performance. This training course was exactly tailored to meet individual training requirements.”

Throughout the training, a wealth of knowledge and experiences were shared between the participants and erudite resource persons, subject specialists, coupled with faculty members.

Training course was carried out through syndicate discussions, group discussions, presentations and conducted in a participatory process. During the training, participants obtained an in-depth understanding of leadership and management for effective administration of justice system.

Capacity of Judicial Officers Enhanced for Improved Service Delivery:
Certificate Awarding Ceremony held at Federal Judicial Academy

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Miangul Hassan Aurangzeb, Judge, IHC urges district judiciary judges to stop clogging courts with frivolous litigations

The Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, held the certificate awarding ceremony at the conclusion of a one-week capacity building training course for Civil Judges from all over Pakistan here at the Academy on March 16, 2015 in which Hon'ble Mr. Justice Miangul Hassan Aurangzeb, Judge, Islamabad High Court was invited as the Chief Guest.

Mr. Justice Miangul Hassan Aurangzeb stated that, "Inadequate legal knowledge and skills weaken the credibility and efficiency of the judicial system and impede its proper functioning. Knowledge should be exercised to create a better society. We have to leave a good legacy for future generations."

He noted that judges require appropriate training to discharge their duties effectively.

Lamenting the "frivolous litigation culture" in courts, Judge, IHC said that, "It is high time to discourage frivolous litigation, adopting dilatory tactics by taking adjournments, pleading contradictory stands before the courts, among others. Judges must impose realistic costs and send a glaring message to restrict the unscrupulous and frivolous litigants from wasting valuable judicial time for wrongful gains. Judges of the subordinate courts must exercise their powers to discourage frivolous litigation. Mediation and ADR mechanisms should be adopted to improve dispensation of cases."

Offering his congratulations to the trainees, Honourable Judge, IHC, urged them to exercise self-discipline in handling every case at work. He also spoke about his decades-long association with the Academy as a lawyer, resource person and now as Judge of High Court.

Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah delivered the welcome address and also presented an overview of the capacity building training course at the certificate awarding ceremony.

He commended the trainees' passion for learning and excellence, and wished them every success upon returning to their position in the field. Advising them, DG said, "It always takes commitment, hard work, determination and perseverance to achieve what you want to achieve".

This weeklong capacity building training course for judicial officers from all over Pakistan was reflective of FJA's continuous commitment to build and enhance capacity of the judges, among others, related to administration of justice system, for improved delivery of justice in the country.

Leadership and Management Course for District and Sessions Judges held

Our courts need dynamic leaders: Director General, Federal Judicial Academy

A six-day training course on “Leadership and Management” for District and Sessions Judges was formally inaugurated at the Federal Judicial Academy (FJA) on January 7, 2019.

While addressing the participants, Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah stated that, “Our courts need strong leaders. This is the second batch for training on the same subject “Leadership and Management.” After extensive consultations, soul-searching and feedback from the previous batch participants, this six days training program has been designed to enhance your leadership and management skills.”

He further said that being senior judicial officers they do not need any training in law but due to changed scenario every District Judge has to act as a leader in his district and he has to know many things about other institutions to further the case of justice delivery.

This unique, six days training course focused on the key facets of leadership and management and provides participants with the opportunity to challenge themselves in a dynamic learning environment.

The program was facilitated by the FJA faculty members who were at the forefront of thought leadership and practice. In addition, twenty five participants were exposed to prominent guest speakers/resource persons who were leading scholars, academics, experts in the field of management and experienced practitioners.

Topics in this course included, “Understanding Challenges at the Workplace”, “Critical Thinking”, “Emotional Intelligence”, “Stress Management”, “Team Building through Engagement”, “Management Communication Skills”, “Deontology-The Judges Perspective”, among others.

Each day involved lectures, interspersed with syndicate discussion, group presentation, individual command tasks, etc.

This training course also featured many opportunities for networking, socialization and engagement with faculty and other experts such as Work Planning, Academy Night and Special Dinner.

One week Pre-Service training course for Additional District and Sessions Judges launched

Strong shoulders bear heavy burden: Director General, Federal Judicial Academy

Six-day pre-service training course for Additional District and Sessions Judges was formally inaugurated at the Federal Judicial Academy (FJA) on January 21, 2019.

Speaking at the launch, Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah stated that, "Academy was committed to improve the capabilities of judicial officers. This six days program is designed to enhance the capabilities of newly promoted/inducted Additional District and Sessions Judges so as to prepare them for their role."

"Additional District and Sessions Judges are the backbone of the system who bear a heavy burden of administration of justice system. In order to bear a heavy burden, they must have strong shoulders to deal with the task in a befitting manner. For this purpose, it is essential that they should be trained for the job and here comes the role of judicial academies. As usual the Academy has tried to secure the services of the best resource persons to impart training on different important subjects and topics during this six days training. This is a valuable opportunity for judges from different jurisdictions to share their knowledge and experience. It is hoped that use would be made of these six days with us," the DG maintained.

The course, from 21st to 26th January, was attended by a group of twenty newly appointed/promoted Additional District and Sessions Judges from all over Pakistan and Azad Jammu and Kashmir. The training course increased their understanding of what it means in practice to be an independent and impartial judge.

The topics and discussions focused specifically on the issues that confront Additional District and Sessions Judges in their daily court proceedings and prepare the participants to uphold the high standards of professionalism.

Several topics were discussed during this six days long training course, relevant to the job of Additional District and Sessions Judge in Pakistan. These topics including "Emotional Intelligence", "Theories of Criminology", "Soft Skills", "Management of Sessions Trial", "Professional Ethics", "Juvenile Justice System Act, 2018", "Perspective on Digital Investigation and Evidence", "Dealing with Lunatics, Criminal Trial and Mental Health Ordinance", "Use of Modern Technologies for Recording of Evidence: Concept of e-court", "Law of Inheritance", "Law of Defamation", "New Dimensions in Medical Jurisprudence", amongst others.

Capacity building training for ADJs

Federal Judicial Academy organized Certificate Awarding Ceremony

Federal Judicial Academy organized Certificate Awarding Ceremony for the participants of six-day pre-service training course in which twenty newly promoted/newly inducted Additional District and Sessions Judges from all over Pakistan and Azad Jammu and Kashmir were awarded certificates on January 26, 2019.

Mr. Fakhar Hayat, Director General, Punjab Judicial Academy was the Chief Guest and distributed certificates among the participants.

Addressing the participants, the DG of the Punjab Judicial Academy, Mr. Fakhar Hayat stressed the high value of the training.

He reiterated the importance of the role of Additional District and Sessions Judge in the administration of justice in the district judiciary.

“Hard work and dedication makes you a successful judge. Judges never retaliate. They decide cases according to law and their conscience. Always try to keep your conscience alive and decide cases as per law,” he advised the trainees.

“One of the most important objectives of FJA is to continuously enhance knowledge and sharpen skills of the judicial officers. “I would like to express my appreciation for the Academy for developing your skills and abilities” he maintained.

At the ceremony, in his welcome address Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah echoed his sentiments like this, “I congratulate the participants upon successful completion of their training course. I also appreciate passion, interest and dedication of the participants, they have demonstrated for training and learning during these six days.”

Trainee Judges are all ears during a lecture of one learned resource person

“The Academy designed and developed a completely new course to precisely address your professional requirements. I hope this six days training would have given you a clear understanding and insight of your duties and responsibilities as Additional District and Sessions Judge,” he concluded.

Stakeholders of Criminal Justice System Put heads together for Effective Administration of Justice

“Training Need Assessment through Focused Group Discussion” held at FJA

FJA to arrange trainings for enhancing professional capabilities and skills of Investigation Officers.

In the backdrop of the Meeting of “Steering Committee on Police Reforms” held on February 11, 2019 under the chairmanship of Hon’ble Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, Chief Justice of Pakistan/Chairman, FJA, in which his lordship had observed that the Judicial Academies across the country should arrange trainings for Investigation Officers for enhancing their professional capabilities and skills, the prime judicial training institute of the country, the Federal Judicial Academy held the “Training Need Assessment Through Focused Group Discussion” at the Phase-II Building of Federal Judicial Academy on March 20, 2019.

The first meeting of “Focused Group Discussion” at the Phase-II Building of Federal Judicial Academy.

The FGD began with a welcoming address by Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah. The FGD was held for as long as 3 hours and discussed a host of issues related to capacity building of Investigation Officers in the light of short comings as pointed out by judicial verdicts at all levels.

“We are hosting this FGD to take constructive input from the learned participants on a variety of issues related to Training Need Assessment,” said the DG in his opening remarks.

Besides faculty members, this FGD was attended by a group of Judicial Officers posted at Islamabad lead by a Senior Additional District & Sessions Judge and included Senior Civil Judges.

From Police side a group of Local Police Officers lead by AIG Establishment including officers dealing with Prosecution.

Following the decision of the National Judicial (Policy Making) Committee (NJPMC), and also the aforementioned meeting of the Police Reforms Committee, under the Chairmanship of Hon’ble Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, Chief Justice of Pakistan/Chairman FJA, in which it was noted that Judicial Academies country wide should arrange trainings of Investigation Officers (IOs) for enhancing their professional capabilities and skills. The formation of this focused group called “Training Need Assessment FGD” was constituted to provide effective training to Investigation Officers, amongst others.

This was the 1st meeting of the FGD and more such like meetings will also be held in future for effective input from all key players for effective trainings to the Investigation Officers.

One day Training on “Case Flow Management System”

Key Punch Operators/ Data Entry Operators attached with Model Criminal Trial Courts in KPk and Balochistan attended training

IT Experts from Sindh High Court imparting training to KPOs and DEOs on “Case Flow Management System”

One day cluster based training was arranged at the Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, for Key Punch Operators/ Data Entry Operators attached with Model Criminal Trial Courts in KPk and Balochistan on March 28, 2019. It was the first event in connection with the training series for professional development of KPOs/ DEOs during this month. The second training was conducted on March 29, 2019.

The training was formally inaugurated by Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah. While addressing the participants, the DG stated that, “Effective and efficient case flow promotes justice and upholds the very purpose of our courts. The Hon’ble Chief Justice of Pakistan is determined to expedite dispensation of justice. In the wake of Expeditious Justice Initiative, these specialized courts called “Model Criminal Trial Courts (MCTCs) have been established, to provide speedy justice to the justice-seekers. This training is designed to enhance your professional capabilities and skills.”

The DG of the Academy also shed light on the mandate and mission of the Academy. He also expressed his sincere thanks for the honourable Chief Justice, Sindh High Court (SHC), who granted permission to the two IT Experts of the High Court to come all way to the Academy and impart training to the trainees from KPk and Balochistan.

Training sessions on “An Introduction to CFMS” and “Hands on training on CFMS” was conducted by Mr. Arif Khan, Deputy Director, Information Technology (Hardware) and Mr. Sarmad Maher, Data Processing Officer, High Court of Sindh, respectively.

The participants of this one day training were awarded certificates by the DG, FJA, to conclude this ceremony in graceful and dignified manner.

Following the decision of the National Judicial (Policy Making) Committee (NJPMC), under the chairmanship of Hon’ble Chief Justice of Pakistan, Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, the Chief Justices of the respective High Courts have ordered the establishment of one Model Criminal Trial Court (MCTC) in every judicial district of the province(s) in accordance with the Constitution that ensures inexpensive and expeditious justice and the right of a fair trial.

The establishment of the MCTC in the provinces is a significant, unprecedented initiative to deliver justice to the justice-seekers. A total of 34 participants from KPk and Balochistan and 2 from Sindh - attended this one day training at the Academy.

2nd One day Cluster-based Training on “Case Flow Management System” for Key Punch Operators/Data Entry Operators attached with Model Criminal Trial Courts in KPk and Balochistan at FJA

The second one day cluster-based training was organized for Key Punch Operators/Data Entry Operators attached with Model Criminal Trial Courts in KPk and Balochistan here at the Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, on March 29, 2019. The first event in connection with the training series for professional development of KPOs/DEOs was conducted on March 28, 2019.

The training was formally inaugurated by Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah. While addressing the participants, the DG stated, “Court staff is as much important for the administration of justice as the Judge him/herself. A competent and efficient staff is an important asset to the court and Presiding Officer.”

The DG of the Academy also sensitized the participants about the role of Information Technology (IT) in expeditious dispensation of justice.

“As the Model Criminal Trial Courts (MCTCs) established in every judicial district of each province in the wake of the decision of the National Judicial (Policy Making) Committee (NJPMC), under the chairmanship of Hon’ble Chief Justice of Pakistan, Mr. Justice Asif Saeed Khan Khosa, are specialized one, therefore, their staff has to be specialized one for speedy justice delivery which is why the Academy has designed this special training course on “An Introduction to CFMS” and “Hands on training on CFMS”. Two IT experts from Sindh High Court are here to impart you training on a very important subject of “Case Management Flow System”, DG concluded.

Akin to the first day one day training, this second training session will conclude in the afternoon and 44 participants will be awarded certificates by the DG, FJA.
